Recommendation

The scholarship committee would like a recommendation from an advisor, teacher, or rabbi describing your involvement and commitment to Jewish life. Recommendations should be mailed directly to the Office of Admission and postmarked no later than January 15.

Personal Essay

Please submit one essay (approximately 500 words) demonstrating your commitment to the Jewish community. In this essay you may wish to include examples of influences on your Jewish identity and community engagement as well as a personal reflection of your motivation for involvement in Jewish life.

Attach your essay to this application on a separate sheet (same size please). You must include your full name, date of birth, and name of secondary school.

Please submit this application, postmarked no later than January 15 to:

Franklin & Marshall College
Office of Admission
Paul and Rose Wiener Scholarship
PO Box 3003
Lancaster, PA 17604-3003

Students who apply for the Paul and Rose Wiener Scholarship must also submit a general application and financial aid application to Franklin & Marshall College, postmarked no later than January 15. The Paul and Rose Wiener Scholarship is a competitive scholarship for students who have demonstrated financial need, academic merit and a commitment to the Jewish community and is based upon general admission qualifications. Students not selected for the Paul and Rose Wiener Scholarship will still be considered for general admission.
